NUMB. 362

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM THURSDAY January 15, to THURSDAY January 22, 1741.

South-Carolina.

By the Honourable WILLIAM BULL Eſq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over His Majeſty's Province of South Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Aſſembly of this Province, entitled, An Act for the better Regulating the Port and Harbour of Charles Town, and the Shipping frequenting the ſame, it is enacted, "That from and after the Ratification of the ſaid Act, no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, whether Inhabitant or Foreigner, trading with Ships or Veſſels of greater or leſſer Burthen, having a Deck, ſhall unload or caſt out of their Ships or Veſſels, any kind of Ballaſt into the Harbour of Charles Town, or in any Creek or River within the Bar, excepting as is therein after excepted; but ſhould lay the ſaid Ballaſt in the Mid-Way between High-Water and Low-Water Mark, at ſuch Place or Places as his Excellency the Governor or the Commander in Chief for the time being, with the Advice of His Majeſty's Honourable Council, ſhould from time to time order and direct; and every Perſon offending againſt that Part of the Act, ſhould forfeit the Sum of One Hundred Pounds Current Money of this Province:" I HAVE therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice and Conſent of His Majeſty's honourable Council, to iſſue this my Proclamation, requiring all Maſters and Commanders of every Ship or Veſſel that are already arrived, or ſhall hereafter come into this Port with their Ships or Veſſels, to unload and throw their Ballaſt out at white Point, between the Stakes ſet up there for their Guidance and Direction: All Perſons concern'd are to take Notice, that the Act above mentioned, will be put ſtrictly in Force, againſt every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be ſubject to the Penalty aforeſaid.

GIVEN under my Hand and the Great Seal of this his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina aforeſaid at the Council Chamber in Charleſtown, the Fifteenth Day of January in the Fourteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, Anno Dom. 1740.

By His Honour's Command, WILLIAM BULL.

Wm. G. Freeman Dep. Secr.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

LONDON, October 14.

We hear, that the Ships of War that convoy'd his Majeſty to England, are to be join'd by five others, and a Bomb Ketch, in order to ſail forthwith to re-inforce Admiral Haddock's Squadron in the Mediterranean.

'Tis apprehended that Rheniſh Wines will be very dear, becauſe all the Letters from the Upper Rhine ſay the Vines have been very much damag'd by the Froſts they have had for ſeveral Nights. And the Vines in ſome Parts of France are ſaid to have far'd no better.

From Vienna we hear, that the Court has reſolv'd to compleat all the Imperial Troops this Winter, and is actually contriving Ways and Means to raiſe the neceſſary Funds for that Purpoſe.

Oct. 18. By Letters from Paris we have a Confirmation that the Court has ordered eight more Ships of the Line and ſeveral Frigates to be fitted up at Breſt and Rochefort. Two Couriers have been lately ſent to Madrid, with Diſpatches which they pretend relate to a Plan of Accommodation between England and Spain, in caſe his Britannick Majeſty inclines to an amicable Negociation. They have received Advice, that the Squadron commanded by the Marquis d'Antin proceeded directly to America, without ſtopping on the Coaſts of Spain.

From the Weekly Miſcellany, publiſh'd by Richard Hooker, Eſq;

As the Methodiſts ſtill continue their Meetings both in London and in other Parts of the Kingdom, the following Paſſage may be of good Uſe in order to apprize well-meaning People of the real Intention of theſe Enthuſiaſts

Mr Hooker, Yorkſhire

YOU have, no doubt on't, ſeen an Account in the publick Prints of the Riot we had in this Country. It took its Riſe at Dewsbury, where Mr Ingham had propagated Methodiſm. Some will have him to be the Author of this Inſurrection, by preaching up, as he certainly did, a Community of Goods, as was practic'd by the Primitive Chriſtians. How much he may have contributed towards raiſing the Mob, I will not pretend to ſay; but what I am going to tell you of this Clergyman is Matter of Fact: I can prove it, and you may make what Uſe of it, you think proper. A Gentleman of Leeds who was one of Mr. Ingham's Followers, ask'd him, what Difference there was between the Church of England, and his Way of Worſhip? To which Mr. Ingham replied, 'The Church of England 'is the Scarlet Whore, propheſied of in the Revelations; 'and there will be no true Chriſtianity as long as that 'Church ſubſiſts.' Your humble Servant.

Mr Timothy

Mr. Hugh Bryan having publiſh'd a Letter, in a Poſtſcript to your Gazette (No 359) in which, among other foul Abuſes, he hath taken upon him, not only to hint, but very plainly to aſſert that "the Clergy of this Province break the Canons of the Church every Day."

Pleaſe to aſſure the Publick, by printing this in your next Gazette, that the Corrector of that Letter for the Preſs, was call'd upon and urg'd in the ſtrongeſt Terms, in the Month of July laſt paſt, to name ſuch particular Clergymen in this Province, whom he knew or could prove to be guilty of the Breach of any of the ſaid Canons, and to accuſe them in a legal Manner; but which he hath hitherto wholly declined to do. This you may aſſure the World is Fact, and what I am ready to prove. And from which every one will obſerve, how juſtly it may be preſumed, that the ſaid Corrector had no Knowledge or Evidence to ſupport ſuch Accuſation, and that his being concerned as an Accomplice in the ſaid Letter, muſt be with malicious Intention, to ſlander and defame the Clergy of this Province, and thereby prejudice their People againſt them, and defeat their Labours in their reſpective Pariſhes.

I am, &c.

CHARLES-TOWN, Jan. 22.

Laſt Tueſday Capt. Ebenezer Simmons, of this Town Merchant, was married to Mrs. Mary Jones, Widow, a Lady of great Beauty, Merit and Fortune.

By a Ship which arrived here laſt Saturday from London, (in 10 Weeks) we hear, that Lord Cathcart, and Sir Chaloner Ogle, with the Forces and the Fleet for the Weſt-Indies, were all ſail'd a Fortnight before they came out.

By Capt. Luſher from Jamaica, we hear, that Admiral Vernon was return'd from his Cruiſe, and has got all his Ships in Readineſs to put to Sea again on the firſt Occaſion.

That one of the 20 Gun Ships, had intercepted and brought in there, a Ship from Old Spain which had on board 60 new Braſs Cannon, Rigging, &c for a 60 Gun Ship building at the Havannah.

That Capt. Thrajter was arrived at Jamaica, and that within an Hour after he got over our Bar, he was attack'd by a Spaniſh Privateer, who ſhot away his Topping Lift, and while he was refitting, the Privateer made her Eſcape.

And we hear from Georgia, by two Men who lately made their Eſcape from the Caſtle of St. Auguſtine, that the above-ſaid Spaniſh Privateer, had taken 3 Veſſels off our Bar, and the Pilot which carried Capt. Throſber out; and brought them all into St. Auguſtine, the Governor of which Place was fitting her up for another Cruiſe.

By a private Letter from a Gentleman at Barbados, who was juſt arrived there from Martinico, dated the 8th of Dec. laſt, we are told, that while he was at Martinico, ſeveral Men of War arrived there from Old France, immediately upon whoſe Arrival, they raiſed ſome Forces and equipp'd ſome Tranſports, which (when he came away) were all ſail'd, 'twas conjectur'd, for St. Domingo, and from thence for Carthagena.

By another private Letter from Barbados, dated the 20th of Dec we are alſo told, that the Lord Cathcart, and Sir Chaloner Ogle, with Fleet and Tranſports, (above 100 Sail) were paſs'd by that Iſland to Dominico to Water, and ſo to proceed for Jamaica, that one of the Men of War touch'd there, (the Weymouth a 60 Gun Ship, commanded by Capt. Knowles.) The Writer concludes with complaining, that ſome Spaniſh Privateers are cruiſing about that Iſland, and that one of them had the Boldneſs to chaſe a Guinea Ship in Sight of one of their Forts, but that they have ſent out a Privateer in Queſt of them.

Mr. Timothy,

YOU will permit me to communicate, thro' your Press, to the Publick, what sort of Reception Mr. WHITEFIELD lately had in New-England; which I shall now do from several obliging Letters of some eminent Ministers of Boston, and adjacent Towns, who are more competent Judges of superior Merit, than Your Friend, &c.

Josiah Smith.

In a Letter of October 1, 1740, I find these Passages,

Rev. Dear SIR,

" YOUR kind Letter by Mr. Whitefield " and your other, &c. are both " before me. You rais'd our Expectations " of him very much, as did his Journals " more, and Mr. P— of New York con- " curr'd with you; but we all own now " we have seen and heard him, that our " Expectations are all answer'd and exceed- " ed; not only in his zealous and fervent " abounding Labours, but in his Command " of the Hearts and Affections of his Hear- " ers. He has been received here as an " Angel of GOD, and Servant of Jesus " Christ, as was the Apostle by the " ——. I hope his Visit to us, is like to " be of very great Use and Benefit to Mi- " nisters and People: He has found his " Heart and Mouth much open'd, to speak " freely and boldly to us, and he finds it " receiv'd with Joy." —

The same Gentleman, Nov. 29, 1740, writes thus,

— " Mr. Whitefield left us seven Weeks " ago; the last Week we heard of him at " Philadelphia; from us to them I hear " much of the Presence of God with him,— " He has left a Blessing behind him we " hope with us; our People, old and young, " high and low are very swift to hear. The " excellent Meekness of Mr. Whitefield's " Answer to the Querists in the Jersies, " will honour him to you." —

Another in a Letter of Octob. 22, 1740, thus expresses himself,

— " Tho' 'tis always a singular Pleasure " to me, when I see a Letter bearing your " superscription; yet your two Letters by " Mr Whitefield had a new Circumstance of " Pleasure from the dear Hand that pre- " sented them. — I perceive you are im- " patient to know, what Manner of En- " tring in, he had amongst us, — His own " received him not; but We (Ministers, " Rulers and People) generally received " him as an Angel of God, or as Elias, or " John the Baptist risen from the Dead, — " When he preach'd his farewel Sermon on " our Common, there were Twenty Three " Thousand at a moderate Computation.— " We are abundantly convinc'd, that you " spake the Words of TRUTH and SO- " BERNESS in your Sermon relating to " him. Such a Power and Presence of God " with a Preacher, and in Religious Assem- " blies, I never saw before, and am ready to " fear I never shall again; but I would not " limit the Holy One of Israel. The Pre- " judices of many are quite conquer'd, and " the Expectations of others vastly out- " done, as they freely own. A considerable " Number are awaken'd, and many Chri- " stians seem to be greatly quicken'd: In this " Town, whoever goes to lessen Mr. White- " field's Reputation, is in Danger of losing " his own. — He has preach'd twice at " Cambridge. He has there one warm " Friend, Mr. —— the Tutor, who has " follow'd him to Northampton, and will, " for ought I know, to [illegible]rgia. — But Mr. W—
